Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 5, to Saturday March 9, 1750.

By the Lords Juſtices General and General Governors of Ireland.

A PROCLAMATION.

George Armagh, Newport, C. Hen. Boyle.

WHEREAS his Majeſty hath ſignified unto us his Royal Pleaſure, That the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now ſtands prorogued to Tueſday the Fifth Day of March next, be further prorogued to Tueſday the Twenty-ſeventh Day of Auguſt following; We do therefore publiſh and declare, That the ſaid Parliament be, and accordingly the ſaid Parliament is hereby further prorogued to Tueſday the Twenty-ſeventh Day of Auguſt next: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament, are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at his Majeſty Caſtle of Dublin, the 25th Day of February, 1750.

By their Excellencies Command,

Ja. Belcher.

GOD Save the KING.

Petersbourg, February 16. The Preparations which were making for her Imperial Majeſty's Journey to Moſcow, are all countermanded. The Court has received Advice from Cronſtadt and Revel, that the Men of War and Gallies in thoſe Ports are ready to put to Sea upon the firſt Notice. By Letters from Finland we learn, that all Things remained there in perfect Tranquillity; and that the Troops of her Imperial Majeſty, and thoſe of the Sweeds, continued very quiet in their reſpective Quarters.

Leghorn, Feb. 21. We have received Advice that the Corſairs of Tunis have lately taken a rich Venetian Merchant Ship, the Cargo of which conſiſted of 125 Bales of Cotton, 150 Barrels of Cyprus Wine, 6 Bales of Raw Silk, and about 70,000 Crowns in Specie. There was on Board 24 Perſons, who were all carried into Slavery, amongſt whom was a Venetian Lady of the Family of Benzoni, and two of her Children.

Turin, Feb. 24. The Dutcheſs of Savoy advances happily in her Pregnancy. The Military Conferences are continued, at which the Duke of Savoy almoſt conſtantly aſſiſts. They have already regulated ſome Points in regard to the Alterations the King propoſed making in the Habits and Exerciſe of his Troops. His Majeſty finding it neceſſary to continue the extraordinary Taxes upon the ſame Footing they were during the War, has cauſed an Edict to be publiſhed, by which he makes known his Intentions on that Subject.

Erfurt, Feb. 26. Yeſterday a Fire broke out at Alperſted, a Village ſituate about two Leagues from hence, which burnt with ſuch Violence, that twenty Houſes were reduced to Aſhes in about three Hours Time, notwithſtanding the Inhabitants of this Town and thoſe of all the neighbouring Towns and Villages, gave them all the Aſſiſtance in their Power.

Copenhagen, Feb. 27. The Diverſions of the Carnival have been extremely brilliant, and ended on Monday laſt with a grand Ball at Court. Within theſe few Days paſt ſeveral Swediſh Deſerters have found Means to croſs the Sound upon the Ice, and have inliſted themſelves in the Troops of this Kingdom.

Stockholm, Feb. 27. The King continues to enjoy his Health to Admiration, and aſſiſts regularly at the Diverſions of the Court. His Majeſty has appointed M. Schulberg to be Keeper of the Records of this Kingdom. The Ruſſian and Pruſſian Miniſters have frequent Conferences with Count Teſſin, and on Friday laſt each diſpatched a Courier for his Court.

Vienna, Feb. 27. Yeſterday an extraordinary Council was held at the Palace, at which her Imperial Majeſty aſſiſted; after which ſhe delivered to his Imperial Majeſty the neceſſary Full Powers for managing all publick and private Affairs during her Lying-in, which is now almoſt daily expected. 'Tis ſtill ſaid that Prince Charles of Lorrain will come hither from Bruſſels towards the Beginning of May, in order to accompany their Imperial Majeſties to Preſburg.

Duſſeldorp, March 5. The Rhine, which has lately done great Damage in the neighbourhood of this City by its Overflowings, is now confined again within its Banks. Yeſterday a conſiderable Number of Recruits for the Imperial Troops quartered in the Low Countries, paſſed through this City on their Way to their reſpective Regiments.

Franckfort, March 5. The Cardinal Prince and Biſhop of Liege ſet out from Munich the 25th paſt for Manheim, where he propoſed ſtaying for ten Days, and then return to his Principality.

Amſterdam, March 6. We have received Advices by a Ship which is arrived at Zealand from Surinam, that the Troops which ſailed from hence ſome Time ago for that Colony under the Command of General Sporcken, landed there the Beginning of December laſt, having weathered a violent Tempeſt ſome Days before; that the General had been pretty much out of Order during Part of the Voyage, but was perfectly recovered when he arrived at Surinam; that the Troops were in good Health, having loſt but very few during the Voyage; that they were received in a very obliging Manner by M. Mauritius the Governor; and that they found every Thing there in perfect Tranquillity, there not being the leaſt Appearance of of the late Conſpiracy of the Blacks, who were all quietly at Work in the Plantations as before.

Hague, March 12. The States of Holland opened their Ordinary Aſſembly on Wedneſday laſt, and the Prince Stadtholder aſſiſted at it for ſome Time. Two Placarts have been publiſhed in their Names, which were reſolved on during their Extraordinary Aſſembly. The Firſt is dated the 20th of February, and is intended to explain the 6th and 8th Articles of their Ordonnance relating to the Tax upon Coaches, Horſes, &c. In relation to the ſaid 6th Article, the States declare, That their Intention is, that whoever ſets up a Vehicle of a ſuperior Degree to that he kept before, or puts a greater Number of Horſes to his Vehicle than what he uſed to do, muſt give the Collector Notice of it, within eight Days after ſuch Alteration, and be taxed accordingly; and whoever ſets up an Equipage, not having kept one before, muſt give the like Notice. By the 8th Article it is ordered, That whoſoever keeps Carriages of any Sort, without Horſes, either to lend or let them out, or to uſe them themſelves with borrowed or hired Horſes, ſhall pay the ſame Tax as if they kept Horſes alſo; and thoſe who keep Horſes only, upon the ſame Footing, are to be taxed in like Manner. Thoſe however, who will ſwear, that their Carriages have not been uſed at all during the whole Year, are exempted from the Tax. By the other Placart, which bears Date the 27th of February, the States explain the 10th Article of their laſt General Placart, by which, in order to prevent Smuggling, they had enacted, That no Commodities liable to the Provincial Taxes or Duties, ſhould be tranſported otherwiſe than in the publick and regular Market Boats, Waggons or other Carriages: As this was attended with ſome ill Effects, the States have added a Clauſe to that Regulation, according to which it will be lawful to hire a Boat or Veſſel for the Tranſportation of any Quantity of ſuch Goods directed to any one Perſon, provided the ſaid Boat belongs to any Boat-man, who ſhall be a Member of the Gilde in that Place from whence the Goods are ſent; and that the Veſſel be at leaſt of the Burthen of 12 Laſts, or that the Freight amount to eight Florins. The Owner of the Veſſel is alſo obliged to go in Perſon along with it: And it is further enacted, That Goods ſent to Market are not to be comprehended in this Clauſe.

Dr. ANDERSON's, or,

The Famous SCOTS PILLS;

ARE faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLISH, Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceased, at the Unicorn, over-against the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are desired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes sealed on the Top (in black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mullets Argent, Dr. Anderson's Head betwixt I. I. with his Name round it, and Isabella Inglish underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epsom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

A Single Gentleman, of Character and some Fortune, offers his Services to the Nobility, &c. in any genteel, easy Station he may be found adequate to. Please to direct for W. D. at King's Coffeehouse, King's Bench Walks, Temple.
